Esquimalt Beer Parlor Vote June 24 Plebiscite Will Decide Fate of Licensed Houses

First Vote on Drying Up Wet Municipality Under Amendment to Liquor Act Scheduled For Next Month

Keen Interest Is Taken in Result

Municipality Voted For Sale of Beer By Glass By Close
Majority in 1924

Electors of the municipality of Esquimalt will have an opportunity to vote for or against beer parlors Friday, June 24, it was learned this morning. The way for the plebiscite was paved at the last session of the Legislature when Attorney-General Pooley introduced an amendment to the British Columbia Liquor Act to provide for a vote to be taken to abolish beer parlors in a district which had previously voted for them.

Although opinions differed on the subject, it was previously claimed by Mr. Pooley that "while provision was made for a vote to be taken there was nothing in the act which empowered the government to close beer parlors if the electors voted against them. As a result of strong representations made to his department following this ruling, the act was amended at the last session of the Legislature."

It now provides that on presentation of a petition containing a sufficient number of names to warrant a plebiscite a vote may be taken in a district which has previously voted for beer parlors. Fifty-five per cent of the voters cast decides the issue. If 55 per cent of the votes are against the beer parlors in the Esquimalt municipality the act says they shall be closed. If the vote is the other way they will remain open.

There was a close vote on the plebiscite in 1924 when beer parlors were established by 665 votes to 550 votes. This represented a heavy vote as there are between 1,200 and 1,300 on the voters' list in the municipality. Although the "Provincial Voters' List" is used the vote does not apply to the whole constituency in the case of a plebiscite on the sale of beer by the glass.

By the time the vote in the Esquimalt municipality—which is the first scheduled under the amended act—is taken the court of revision will have completed its work on the voters' list of the district.

Considerable interest is being shown by opposing factions in the contest which decides the fate of three beer parlors now established. The plebiscite follows the circulation of a petition which was extensively signed in the district about a year ago. Arguments were advanced at that time that the presence of beer parlors in Esquimalt was having a depressing effect on the value of real estate.

Doubts had been raised as to the legality of the petition in view of the fact that it was returned to the Attorney-General's Department before the amendment to the act. These doubts have apparently been swept aside in view of the announcement that a vote is to be taken.

Progress towards holding a Greater Victoria inter-municipal conference on the new school tax was made yesterday evening, when the Saanich Council, received named delegates who will attend from the councils of Victoria, Oak Bay and Esquimalt, and from the school boards of Victoria and Oak Bay. The correspondence was ordered transferred to the Saanich committee, headed by Trustee F. Partridge, for assignment of a date for the conference.

The Victoria council has appointed Aldermen P. R. Brown and W. T. Straith, and the city school board will be represented by Councillors A. D. Crease and R. W. Mayhew, but the trustees notified Saanich that no

Thirty-five Per Cent of Electors of Area Concerned
Must Sign Petition

Plebiscites on the sale of beer-by-the-glass may be taken only once in three years under an order-in-council made public today. The order passed at a meeting of the executive council, presided over by Attorney-General Pooley as Acting Premier, and attended by Hon. S. L. Howe, Hon. N. S. Longhead, Hon. J. W. Jones, Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, and Hon. W. Atkinson, sets out conditions under which petitions may be presented and plebiscites taken for votes on beer parlors.

The order specifies that 35 per cent of the electors of the area concerned must sign a petition before a plebiscite can be ordered.

"Where a petition relates to more than one polling division, each elector when signing the petition shall designate opposite his signature the name of the polling division for which he is registered as an elector. Each elector shall sign the petition in the presence of a witness, who will sign his name as witness opposite the signature of the elector. The petition shall be verified as to the identity and signature of each elector by a statutory declaration of the witness."

"The polling divisions to be grouped in any case for the purpose of taking the vote of the electors on the question set out in subsection (2) of section 3 of the said act shall be only such polling divisions as together form one continuous area."

"Where a vote of the electors in any area has been taken, following a petition therefor as hereinbefore set out, no further petition shall be entertained in respect of that area until the expiration of a period of three years from the date on which the vote of the electors was so taken."

Match King Kreuger's Chicanery Makes Ponzi Look Like Piker

Since Ivar Kreuger's suicide in Paris in the spring the industrial empire of the Swedish match king has been falling to pieces.

The collapse has revealed the hollowness of the structure he reared on the strength of gigantic forgeries and unbelievable swindling which has cost the banks and investors on this continent—including many in Victoria—as well as in Europe hundreds of millions of dollars. He made Ponzi look like an insignificant piker.

The first of a series of articles on the Kreuger crash will be printed as a feature of the Saturday Magazine Section of The Victoria Daily Times to-morrow.

Agreement On Milk Price Level Sought

Fraser Valley Dairy Men Believe They Will Receive

ments

CANADIAN PRESS
Vancouver, May 27.—It is stated the campaign for stabilization of the milk market in this district has succeeded. Dairy interests received reports at a meeting held in Vancouver yesterday afternoon that the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association and independent producers, and in conference were Messrs. Archie Hogg, Walter Leck and E. C. Smith, members of the emergency committee. It was stated a meeting of independent producers at Abbotsford on Saturday night might mark the culminating point in the fight for better returns to the farmers for their milk.

Signatures to the proposed agreements which would bring independents and co-operatives together for the purpose of stabilizing the price of milk under producer control were satisfactory, said Walter Leck, who stated he had addressed meetings in every municipality in the Fraser Valley from Richmond to Hope. He expected the meetings of independents called for Saturday at Abbotsford would complete the organization and allow of an immediate stabilization of the price of milk. Fear of independent dairies had kept a few from signing, he said.

DECISION ON ACT
E. C. Smith outlined the operation since the meeting of independents held at New Westminster recently, pointing out that Basil Gardom had requested members of his organization not to sign anything until the fight on the Dairy Sales Adjustment Act had been concluded. That had complicated matters and made it necessary for the meeting at Abbotsford to be held.

The committee discussed various angles of the situation, Mr. Gardom objecting to clause five of the agreement, which proposed each producer should take care of surplus figures on the winter production. He stated he would welcome independents not now members.

SHIP SINKS AFTER CRASH

Three Men of Ss. Grecian,

Ss. Chattanooga Slightly Damaged in Collision in Heavy Fog

Associated Press
New York, May 27.—The small steamer Grecian, rolling down from Boston to Norfolk, Virginia, with a crew of thirty-five, a cargo of general freight and no passengers, collided with the steamship City of Chattanooga in a dense fog and dangerous sea off Block Island early to-day and went to the bottom.

The bodies of three of four men early reported missing were recovered, eight United States coastguard cutters joining in the search in a rough sea. Some of the thirty-two who were rescued were injured, as indicated by a call for a surgeon by the City of Chattanooga.

The master of the Grecian was among those saved.

SANK QUICKLY
The story of the collision was told graphically in messages picked up here by the Radio Marine Corporation. The first, from the City of Chattanooga, said:

"At about 1:50 a.m. (eastern standard time) we struck the steamer Grecian and she sank in a few minutes off Block Island. We anchored. Crew and passengers (of the City of Chattanooga) all right."

Block Island is ten miles off the Rhode Island coast. The collision occurred about five miles in a northerly direction, from the island.

SEARCH FOR SURVIVORS
A few minutes later the City of Chattanooga sent this message:

"We are blowing three blasts at intervals and searching for members of the crew not yet rescued, with lights and boats."

She gave her position as latitude 41.05, longitude 71.31 west.

At 3:53 a.m. the steamship Ontario asked the City of Chattanooga if she needed any assistance. The master of the City of Chattanooga replied:

"We do not need any assistance. The master of the Grecian is safe aboard the City of Chattanooga. The damage to our ship is unknown, but considered slight. Four members of the Grecian's crew are still unaccounted for. The United States cutter Upshur for. The United States cutter Upshur for."

Edmonton, May 27.—Ample moisture supply, even germination and rapid growth are making the best of prospects for central Alberta crops, according to the first monthly crop report of The Edmonton Journal. Early sown wheat is already waving green in the fields.

Seeding of wheat is expected to be completed to-morrow, rains having delayed the seeding of the 6 per cent remaining after Victoria Day. That the greatest acreage is still being devoted to wheat as the farmers' main "cash crop" is shown by preliminary estimates that average less than 3 per cent decrease.

With over 40 per cent of the oats sown when reports were mailed to The Journal, seeding of oats should be completed next week, except for green feed. Little barley has been sown yet

Sudbury, May 27.—A million-dollar rainfall which swept over northern Ontario early to-day brought relief to harassed firefighters who had been combating forest fires in many districts. The fire condition was reported as very favorable to-day. All fires in this area were under control, including the menacing blaze in McNish Township, which had endangered millions of feet of the finest white pine.

Heavy rains were general throughout the north. At Matawatsch, in the northern section of the forestry district, snow was falling. At Rouyn, Quebec, there was two inches of snow.

GAS TAX RISE CUTS REVENUE

Sales of Big Oil Companies and Service Stations Drop
10 to 25 Per Cent

Extra Two-cent Levy Just Enough to Induce Motorists to Curtail

The new seven-cent gasoline tax is bringing in less revenue to the provincial government than the former five-cent tax.

Gasoline sales have shown a sharp drop throughout the province since the seven-cent tax went into effect on April 18. Of the three large oil companies supplying the retail stations, one reports a drop in volume of 22 per cent, the second company a drop of 15 per cent and the third a drop of 10 per cent.

Corner service stations have been hard hit by the drop in volume of business. Most of them report their sales are off about 25 per cent. The decline in sales of some of the bigger stations with a commercial business, supplying trucks of various firms, has not been so sharp.

THE EXTRA STRAW

The gas tax increase is not solely responsible for the drop in sales, as this condition has been aided by the general depression, the dealers explained. But the extra two cents on gasoline was just enough, like the straw that broke the camel's back, to turn the public buying demand downwards.

Returns made to the provincial government by the various companies indicate that the total revenue under the seven-cent rate will be less than under the five-cent rate. Many motorists are not using their cars as extensively as in the past, and it is estimated that the government is losing thousands of dollars weekly.

"While there has been a natural decline in consumption due to the restricted operations of some of our large commercial users, it is apparent that the higher gasoline tax has had a serious effect," one gasoline company official states. "It is a fact that people are not using their cars as much as formerly."

"It was at service stations that we first noticed the dropping off in sales, and this is our most accurate barometer of 'public consumption,'" he continued.

General dissatisfaction with the tax is expressed in all branches of the automobile and oil industry, as the decrease in the number of cars on the road is having a far-reaching effect.

Office Open For Drivers' Licenses

POLICY ISSUED; PROTEST FILED

Saanich Fire Insurance Cause of Petition to Council

Business Renewed With Agent Who Made Municipality Large Premium Saving

Insurance against loss by fire of Saanich municipal property, placed with the Victoria agency of a United States company, was the subject of a strong protest at yesterday evening's session of the Saanich Council. Walter Paterson of Gordon Head presented a largely signed petition against patronage of a United States company. Mr. Paterson stated that a tender at identical figures, submitted by the agency of a Canadian insurance company, had been disregarded by the council.

Reeve Crouch said the matter would be reconsidered. He personally considered the course adopted by the finance committee was correct, under the circumstances.

Later a letter was read from the Canadian products group of the Chamber of Commerce appealing for reconsideration.

The premium amounted to $766, or $1.10 per $100 on $69,700, covering a schedule of twenty-three items, including the municipal hall, houses built under the soldiers' housing scheme, furnishings and similar items.

NO COMPANY NAMED

Reeve Crouch said the unsuccessful tender had included a clause in his bid specifying that the insurance would be placed with "a Canadian company." No information as to the concern was provided.

"I moved the insurance be renewed with a firm which had given us the utmost satisfaction and which had shown us the way to save a very important sum of money," Councillor W. R. Woods explained on behalf of the finance committee.

The policy having been received the council decided to approve the placement and refuse to reopen the matter.

ONE-MAN BOARD TO GET $9,000

Nine Per Cent Increase in Liquor Prices Awaits New Commissioner's Report

When British Columbia reverts from the three-man to the one-man liquor board at the end of the month, the salary cost of the board will be just one-third of what it has been.

Hon. R. H. Pooley, acting premier, announced the salary of the one-man board, which will be $9,000 a year net, after deduction of the 10 per cent civil service pay cut. The cost of the retiring board before the 10 per cent pay cut was $30,000 a year, with Chairman Henry B. Thomson receiving $15,000 a year and the other two commissioners $7,500 each.

Mr. Pooley paid a tribute to the work of the retiring board and particularly Chairman Thomson for his important services to the province.

Mr. Kennedy's first duty as commissioner will be to present the government with a new price list of liquors to take account of the increase in Federal sales tax and excise levies. These represent a 9 per cent increase in liquor prices.

MACHINE GUN REPORT DENIED

Associated Press
Geneva, Switzerland, May 27.—Jose Carlos Macdonald, head of the Brazilian delegation to the Disarmament conference, today issued a formal denial of a report that Brazil had ordered large consignments of machine guns. Discussing his government's action in opening a credit for the purpose of modernizing its navy, the Brazilian representative said the proposal was entirely within the limits of the Washington Treaty.

EARTHQUAKE IN NEW GUINEA

Sydney, Australia, May 27.—The observatory at Riverview recorded a heavy earthquake shock at 2:14 a.m. today. The quake centred approximately 1,500 miles away, officials said, probably in New Guinea.

MOTHER-IN-LAW

Nags
Young
Bride

Young Alice Robinson has been married seven months—at first all went well, then trouble started. Her husband's mother came in one night to supper and, in the innocent way mothers-in-law have, made a critical remark about the table cloth. Perhaps it wasn't just as white and gleaming as it might have been, but Alice had worked hard over that tablecloth just last washday and felt very hurt in consequence.

But Wise Mother Prevents Trouble

Next day Alice asked her own mother to come over and see her and tearfully explained her trouble. "I tried so hard to have everything looking nice—and then she said something about the cloth." Her mother looked at the tablecloth with a discerning eye. "Alice, my child, you may be trying hard, but I think I can tell you an easier way to get things clean. I'll tell you what I do.

"First, I use a good soap. I'd advise you to use the brand I always buy—Pearl White Napha. You'll find it a good practical laundry soap and a lot more economical than most. Soap your clothes and put them to soak overnight in cold water. You will find that, as the water temperature rises to the heat of the room, more dirt is loosened than would be if the water were cooling. In the morning, rinse your clothes thoroughly in warm water and you'll never have any more troubles with your wash."

Thousands of women have now learned this valuable laundry secret. Get the Pearl habit yourself—Pearl means efficient work in less time and at less cost. That's something to remember these days.

Over 3000 cakes of Pearl Soap are used by Canadian housewives every hour.

KING ORDERS SHOW TO BE "ALL-LAUGHTER"

But Jokes Are to Be "Toned Down" For Royal Command Variety Performance

By Reuters.
London—British music hall circles have been jubilant because all the turns selected for the royal command variety performance at the London Palladium on May 30 go to make up an "all-laughter" show. The King always enjoys these performances heartily. Some of the broader forms of humor are, however, "toned down" slightly for the occasion.
Nervo and Knox, the most uproarious of our knock-about comedians, now back from their African tour, head the list of funny men. In more serious vein are the sensational dancers Les Kirkwhite and Errol Addison, the latter being the man who specializes in spinning indefinitely as fast as a top. He has been called the "human gyroscope." Another honored performer is "Little Dorrie," a child of thirteen, who plays the violin and dances simultaneously.
Nearly all the members of the royal family enjoy "popular" entertainments as much as they do the more recondite forms of recreation. The Prince of Wales and Prince George both like the cinema, and Princess Elizabeth is among the most devoted admirers of "Mickey Mouse." The Duke of Connaught has been known to chuckle at these films, too.

MAN BELIEVED DEAD APPEARS

Edingen, Baden, Germany, May 27.—Oskar Daubmann, thirty-six, German war veteran, who for sixteen years had been believed dead, and whose name was engraved on a monument to war dead here, has written his aged parents here that he arrived at Palermo, Italy, alive and well.
He said that after sustaining serious wounds in the Battle of the Somme in 1916, he tried to escape from a French war prison, was caught and deported to Africa, whence he now has made his way to Palermo.
The German consul at Naples confirmed the story when Daubmann's parents believed they were being made victims of a cruel hoax.

MANITOBA HAS NEW COALITION

Three Liberals Join Bracken Cabinet; General Election June 16

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, May 27.—Their union cemented by a cabinet coalition, Liberals and Progressives today were in the midst of Manitoba's election campaign battle, fighting side by side.
Premier John Bracken's government is seeking re-election June 16 under a Liberal-Progressive standard, with a cabinet made up of three Liberals and eight Progressives. At the finish of his keynote campaign speech here yesterday evening the Premier announced the names of the three Liberals he had invited to join his ministry.
They are: Ewan A. McPherson, member of the House of Commons for Portage la Prairie from 1926 till 1930; J. S. McDiarmid, who from 1926 to 1930 represented Winnipeg South Centre in the House of Commons, and Dr. Murdoch MacKay, Manitoba Liberal leader.

In order to make room for them, Premier Bracken transferred Hon. D. G. McCarrie from the Ministry of Mines and Natural Resources to that of Agriculture, and left Hon. Albert Prefontaine, who has been Minister of Agriculture, without a portfolio. Mr. McDiarmid takes over the Mines and Natural Resources Department and Mr. McPherson becomes Provincial Treasurer in place of the Premier. Dr. MacKay enters the cabinet without portfolio.

Immediately following the Premier's announcement to a large gathering of Liberal-Progressive supporters, the following were nominated to run in Winnipeg under the coalition party banner: Hon. W. J. Major, Mr. McDiarmid, Hon. E. W. Montgomery, M.D., Minister of Health, Duncan Cameron, Ralph Maybank and Walter J. Fulton.

Naming of the six Liberal-Progressive candidates swelled to twenty-eight the list of candidates already nominated to contest Winnipeg's ten seats in the Legislature. Seven Conservatives were nominated the previous night, the Independent Labor Party has named six candidates, the "Continuing Liberal" Party three and six Independents will run with the sanction of smaller organizations. The Continuing Liberals, who do not support the union of Liberals with the government forces, at a nominating meeting yesterday evening chose Lieut.-Col. J. Y. Reid, Clarence G. Keith and H. P. A. Harnanson to run in Winnipeg. David Campbell, mayor of St. Boniface, is leader of the Liberal group which is not supporting the Bracken government.

CONVICTED OF JAIL ESCAPE

W. Lane Found Guilty; Other Oakalla Prisoner Describes Bagley Group's Break

New Westminster, May 27.—On a charge of escaping from Oakalla Prison January 3 with William Bagley, bandit still at liberty, and three other prisoners, William Lane yesterday afternoon was convicted by an assize court jury here. He was found not guilty on another count, that of breaking jail by sawing, haying and cutting a hole in a partition. He was remanded for sentence until the end of the assizes by Mr. Justice Fisher.

Warden Walter Owen of Oakalla testified Lane had been employed as a trusty on Tier Three prior to the escape. He said the prison guards had been concerned following an investigation into the jail break, and that nothing wrong had been found with the cell locks. How the doors were opened still remained a mystery.

HACKSAWS AND MONEY
That four days before William Bagley and the four others made their escape Bagley had in his possession three hacksaws and between $500 and $1,000 in cash was testimony given by Norman A. Moore.
He also gave evidence that Bagley had planned the jail break, sawed the bars and board partition, and issued a general invitation to twenty prisoners in the cell block to escape with him. Moore was of the quintette who escaped, but was recaptured several days later.

Lane conducted his own defence, and Moore's testimony was given on behalf of Lane.
In answer to a question by Lane, Moore and Bagley had asked him to go along with him. He testified that he saw the cell doors locked at 4 p.m. on the day previous to the break, but said they were not "tried." Prisoners in that cell block had not been counted for three days prior to the escape, he said.

Testifying to the hacksaws and money in Bagley's possession, Moore declared: "I saw the money when we were playing cards. Bagley gave Frank Sorge $10 to get one of the men in the machine shop to get a hacksaw blade. On several occasions Bagley worked, sawing the bars. When the guards came along they did not do anything, although the noise could be heard all over the cell block."

CRAWLED THROUGH HOLE
"On the day of the jail delivery," Moore continued, "a hard stool in front of my cell while Bagley actually crawled through the board partition at the end of the tier. He was returning to his cell after working on the outer bars. Bagley set in place the 'cut-out' in the partition while the guard stood about twenty feet away from him and paid no attention."

During a cross-examination by W. G. McQuarrie, M.C., Moore testified that he saw the money when he was playing cards. Bagley gave Frank Sorge $10 to get one of the men in the machine shop to get a hacksaw blade. On several occasions Bagley worked, sawing the bars. When the guards came along they did not do anything, although the noise could be heard all over the cell block.

CANADA'S ARCTIC CITIZENS

There are approximately 7,100 Eskimos in Arctic and sub-Arctic Canada, including Hudson Bay, scattered in small groups, principally in the Arctic islands and along the northern seaboard. Canadian Eskimos are progressive. The more advanced are equipped with an auxiliary gasoline engine. At Aklavik during the summer as many as twenty-five of these schooners, all owned by natives, are frequently to be seen at one time.

DISARMAMENT SUPPORT URGED

Sir George Perley, Back in Canada, Tells of Hopes at Geneva

Quebec, May 27.—There is no cause for either despair or discouragement in respect of the work of the conference, stated Sir George Perley, leader of Canada's delegation to the World Disarmament Conference, who has returned to this country to report to the government on the sessions at Geneva.

Sir George, who is a minister without portfolio in the Dominion cabinet, reached Quebec yesterday evening aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Britain.
A new French government would soon be in office; important political conversations between the great powers would then be resumed; the Lausanne Conference, which was soon to be held, would give Europe's leaders a chance to deal with problems closely related to disarmament, he said. Every delegation in Geneva was resolved to do what it could to see this first world disarmament conference should not fail. They would see it through no matter how long it took, but public opinion must continue to back them, Sir George said.

DUPRE STAYS AT GENEVA

The Canadian leader spoke in praise of his confreres in Canada's delegation. Hon. Maurice Dupre, Solicitor-General, who remained at Geneva as head of the Canadian delegation, was vice-president and lately acting president of the naval commission and had with him a capable advisory staff. Miss Winnifred Kydd, Canada's woman delegate, had been "very active and helpful in Geneva and is anxious now to explain to the women of Canada what the conference has already accomplished," he said.

Sir George released to the Canadian Press a statement on the commission's work which he had intended to give in the Commons, but he learned Parliament had been prorogued a few hours before he reached Quebec.

Trout Are Biting At Great Central Lake

Special to The Times

Port Alberni, May 27.—Great Central Lake is maintaining its reputation as the home of big trout. On Empire Day, Clyde Paxton and Jim Pakenham of Alberni caught twenty-nine beauties, including one cutthroat that tipped the scales at twelve pounds. The trout was duly photographed and weighed before witnesses.

With rivers and lakes falling rapidly since the good weather came, game fishing in the districts has wonderfully improved and some fine catches are being reported.

REST PAIR AFTER CLASH

REST ON POLICE

The fleeing quarry opened fire on the police, according to the officers. Constables Thomas and Sutherland replied. The men escaped, however.

A radio alarm was sent out, and Constables Monger and McEldowney, who were on duty at the time, were dispatched to the scene.

At 3:10 a.m. the cash drawer was found at the Cedar Produce Company on West Broadway and held up by two men. The men escaped, however.

At 7 a.m. the cash drawer was found at the Union Street and Campbell Avenue and turned over to police.

The four men are believed to be members of a bandit gang which has been operating in the city for some weeks.

The fundamental purpose of the public health movement, Miss Upshall said, was to set forth an understanding of, and to put into practice, those safeguards which will assure health in mind and body.

The Greaves, a steel screw steamer of 2,827 net tons, built in 1900 and operated by the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company between Boston, Baltimore and southern ports.

The City of Chattanooga is a much newer craft, having been built in 1923. She runs on the Savannah Line between Savannah, New York and Boston.

She left Boston yesterday evening, Boston-bound. She is a craft of 4,343 net tons.

Thursdays hung over the Rhode Island coast-line this morning as all coastguard craft in the vicinity joined the search, and the sea was running high.

The City of Chattanooga remained at the scene of the collision at anchor.

Reeve Crouch promised that every effort would be made by the council to terminate unsatisfactory conditions.

Ex-Councillor Stanley Eden headed a delegation which protested against the increasing settlement of Hindus in urban Sanjich. James Moyes said an undesirable Englishman would be deported, had the federal government appeared afraid to treat Hindus, Chinese and Japanese in similar manner.

Reeve Crouch said the council could do nothing beyond insist upon compliance with building and sanitary regulations. Any protest to Ottawa would probably be promptly dropped in a waste basket. He would bring the matter before the Union of B.C. Municipalities, as all Sanjich people objected to Hindu neighbors. The council had many times refused to sell lots to Orientals, only to subsequently find that white purchasers, or real estate agents, had courted agents for the Hindu parties to whom the council had refused to sell residential property in good districts.

NO ACTION POSSIBLE
The council later agreed that establishment of building zones would be required by courts as a measure of prevention. No means could be found to prevent Hindus from residing in any district in which they were able to purchase property, if they complied with sanitary and building laws.

On motion of Councillor Woods the problem of infiltration by Hindus will be brought before the Union of B.C. Municipalities.

BROMLEY ON U.S. FLIGHT

Dallas, Texas-New York Hop Is Test of Plane For Ocean Journey

New York Hears He May Try Atlantic; Pacific Prize Time Is Short

Dallas, Texas, May 27.—Harold Bromley, formerly of Victoria, B.C., flying a monoplane propelled by a Diesel motor, left here before dawn today on a planned three-hop test flight in preparation for a transatlantic jump from Seattle to Tokyo for a prize of $50,000.

His plans, as announced here, were for a non-stop journey to New York, a non-stop flight from New York to Los Angeles, and a non-stop jump from Los Angeles to Seattle. The aviator, who previously failed in two attempts to span the Pacific, planned to fly to New York by way of Texarkana and Memphis.

After the take-off, friends of the flier revealed he had sought to accustom himself to the certain ordeal of a long ocean flight by sitting in his hotel room for about forty-eight hours. Bromley's ship is a low-winged Lockheed monoplane powered with a 240-horsepower Diesel-made motor, with specially installed fuel tanks. It was estimated to have a cruising range of 6,000 miles.

The flier had been here two weeks while mechanics remodeled his plane behind barred doors.

New York, May 27.—There were some indications today that Harold Bromley would get away today on his projected flight attempt this summer, had changed his mind and would try the Atlantic hop instead.

Pilot Bromley left Dallas, non-stop, for New York today in what was announced as a flight preparatory to one across the Pacific. Telegrams received here, however, indicated he might fly the Atlantic instead.

Fliers here believed Bromley would not fly to Seattle from Dallas by way of New York, especially as the time in which the $50,000 prize for Seattle-Tokyo flight must be won. The offer will expire June 1.

At 3:10 a.m. bandits broke open the door at the Cedar Produce Company on West Broadway and held up Lee Chung, proprietor, and his wife, who live in the rear of the place. They took Chung's trousers, which contained $100, and the cash drawer, containing $1 in pennies.

As they left the place one of the bandits fired a shot at the Chinese merchant.

At 7 a.m. the cash drawer was found at Union Street and Campbell Avenue and turned over to police.

The four men are believed to be members of a bandit gang which has been operating in the city for some weeks.

The fundamental purpose of the public health movement, Miss Upshall said, was to set forth an understanding of, and to put into practice, those safeguards which will assure health in mind and body.

MONEY TARIFF PLAN REJECTED

NEWS SERVICE FOR EMPIRE

Conference in 1935 May Sanction System, Says B. C. Nicholas

Vancouver, May 27.—Belief the Imperial Press Conference in North Africa in 1935 may sanction organization of an Empire-wide news service which will further unite the British Commonwealth of Nations was expressed by B. C. Nicholas, editor of The Victoria Times, in addressing a local service club here yesterday. "Power of the Press and Empire Unity" was his subject.

Proposals regarding an Empire news service, in which the Victoria Times and other newspapers would exchange news, were advanced at the 1935 Imperial Press Conference in London, and at the next conference the idea might be accepted, he thought.

"Such a service could place before the British people a good measure of Empire news at reasonable cost," the speaker said. "I think the press can make a substantial contribution to solidarity of the Empire. Commercial treaties may bring peoples together, but the press can bring them closer together."

At present the power of the press had not been thoroughly harnessed to aid in bringing about Empire unity, Mr. Nicholas asserted. In this Dominion, the Canadian Press, an organization of foremost Canadian newspapers, had established an intimate contact with the press of the United States, which had resulted in mutual understanding and promotion of a progressive national spirit, he said.

The luncheon, which took the form of a "press day," was attended by a number of prominent newspapermen, including F. J. Burn, managing director of The Vancouver Times, and J. W. Brown, editor-in-chief of The Province. B. A. McKelvie, news editor of The Victoria Colonist, and G. H. Salinas, managing editor of The Sun.

W. STEVENSON, VANCOUVER, DIES

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 27.—Well-known aged seventy-six, Walter Stevenson, Vancouver lawyer, died yesterday evening in St. Paul's Hospital, following a prolonged illness. He had resided in Vancouver twenty years.

He is survived by a widow, two stepsons, Sir Henry Blackwood, of England, and Francis Blackwood, of San Francisco, and one stepdaughter, Mrs. Walter Geoghegan, of this city.

GOVERNOR IS CLUB SPEAKER

Canadian Press
Vancouver, May 27.—Vancouver business and professional men gave a hearty welcome to their former fellow townsman at a Canadian Club luncheon in the Hotel Vancouver today when Hon. J. W. Fordham Johnson, Governor of the province, was introduced as the guest speaker of the day by President J. H. Ross. This was the first public address given by him in his home city since he was appointed to Government House a year ago.

War debts and reparations constituted the theme of the address, a thoughtful review of the whole history of this complex problem, concluded with the hope that from the international conference to assemble at Lausanne on June 28 might emerge some hope of a solution.

"We can only trust," the Lieutenant-Governor said, "from the conference to be held next month at Lausanne that some satisfactory solution can be found in the hope the business world of today will be lifted in some measure from the state of depression and despair into which it is now plunging."

Canada interested
The two problems facing the Lausanne Conference, said the speaker, were:

1. Whether France and Italy, who may not be able to collect any further from Germany, will be able to continue making their large annual payments to United States and Great Britain.

2. Whether Great Britain, if unable to collect from France, Italy and Germany, will be able to continue making their large annual payments to United States and Great Britain.

While Canada did not appear to be directly concerned in these matters, the fact was that Canada was a great exporting country and thrived on the prosperity of her customers. Over half of Canada's export trade went to the countries whose future was directly dependent on satisfactory solution of the international debts.

SCORES MAYOR AT INQUIRY

Counsel at New York Investigation Says Walker's Testimony Vague

Associated Press
New York, May 27.—Samuel Seabury, counsel to the Hottel committee, declared today in a public session to-day that Mayor James J. Walker's testimony had been "vague on all points" and that Russell T. Sherwood's flight in the face of accusation is some evidence of guilt.

"There is no reason," Seabury said, "why Sherwood should fear investigation if he was the agent of others. He knew he was being investigated in relation to the mayor."

Seabury insisted it stood in the evidence that Sherwood had a "mint safe deposit box with the mayor."

"In addition we have proof showing Sherwood was and had been for many years the agent of the mayor, and that he is a written application for a position he said he was an accountant and confidential secretary at $5,500 a year."

"You have evidence," he added, "that from January 1, 1926 to the date Mayor Walker went into office, until he fled, nearly $1,000,000 went into Sherwood's accounts."

"You have undisputed evidence that William J. Scanlan got $10,000 commission on a city contract, and that $6,000 of it went into the account of Russell Sherwood."

MAYOR ON STAND
Before the committee yesterday, Mayor Walker denied Sherwood had acted as his financial agent.

At yesterday's session of the committee, Mayor Walker, flustered by the evidence, gave his explanation of how he had made hundreds of thousands of dollars from stock transactions without putting up a cent, and charged Samuel Seabury with trying to end his political life.

Hundreds of his constituents listened in comparative silence while the mayor detailed his complicated personal finance to the Legislature committee.

Mayor Walker told how he benefited to the extent of $302,227 from stock transactions and pools in which he made no investment.

Late in the day, when Seabury introduced Sherwood's bank and checkbook accounts, he said to Mayor Walker: "From January 1, 1926, to August 5, 1931, these accounts show, Sherwood deposited $700,225, of which $472,094 was in cash. Can you explain where this money came from?"

"I am either guilty of perjury or I am not," Walker said. "I never knew anything about Sherwood's personal affairs."

As he left the stand, the mayor appealed to the committee to find some way to improve "the archaic, worn-out, overlapping, out-of-date charter under which the city of New York lives."

TAKE CHILDREN OF DOUKHOBORS

The Protestant Orphanage already has seven Doukhobor children among the inmates, four girls and three boys. All are reported to be happy and well.

Children of the Doukhobors who are in a satisfactory manner.

CHILDREN HAPPY; PARENTS MOURN
Nelson, B.C., May 27.—One hundred and forty-one Doukhobor children are in the care of the province on their way to the Coast to be placed in various homes in Vancouver and Victoria, while their parents are serving three-year prison terms at Boundary Falls.

Words of the government, the children appeared in a happy mood when they left here yesterday evening in two special coaches attached to the west-bound train. There was a demonstration at the jail an hour before they were taken from the jail here, thirty-five more being picked up at Boundary Falls.

When the train was taken from their parents, but no trouble. Early in the day the fathers and mothers were informed that their children would be removed at noon and many tears were shed as farewells were said, the parents feeling keenly the departure of their youngsters.

The children on the train were in charge of two mounted police constables and a special officer. Apples, oranges, bread, milk and peanuts were taken aboard to keep the youngsters contented.

SONE FOR VICTORIA
The children of the government wards will be distributed among the Boys' Industrial School, Girls' Industrial School, the Loyal Protestant Home at New Westminster, and the Protestant Orphanage, Vancouver, and a number will be placed in charge of the Children's Aid Society in Vancouver. Most of them have been in jail here since May 15.

Nothing has been officially announced, it is understood there will be further contact of convicted adults to Oakalla prison farm before Sunday. There will be about 200 in the party.

At present there are 294 adults and seventy-eight children still in the jail here.

To-night's parting demonstration was witnessed by hundreds of Doukhobor relatives, sympathizers and friends. The first time since the removal of the Doukhobors from the jail, the sympathizers showed signs of anger and argued with police officers.

Vancouver, May 26.—Dominion Government officials yesterday started a search for an island off the coast of British Columbia where 450 Doukhobors under sentence of three years each may be imprisoned. C. E. Dawson, Dominion Government agent at Victoria, and an official from Ottawa left on the Public Works Department launch Walrus yesterday for an exploration tour. They will endeavor to find an isolated island on which the Doukhobors could serve their sentences.

During the last few weeks 750 persons have been arrested by provincial authorities. Many are awaiting hearing in the Nelson police court.

Jail accommodation in British Columbia is not sufficient to house all prisoners who have been convicted in the Kootenay. Barbed wire enclosures have been established at Nelson jail to hold the prisoners.

SUIT AGAINST FILM ACTRESS

Associated Press
Los Angeles, Cal., May 27.—A suit for $10,000 to collect fees for legal work was filed today against Betty Compson, film star, by Edward Brand, Hollywood attorney. Brand said he also had filed attachments on the property and bank accounts of the actress.

Brand alleged the actress had failed to pay him for his part in gaining a settlement of her income tax difficulties with the British government.

U.S. LEADS TENNIS PLAY

Frank Shields Defeats H. O. Hopman, Australia, 6-4, 6-1, 6-2 in Davis Cup

Vines Has Two-set Lead Over Crawford When Rain Intervenes

Country Club, Philadelphia, May 27.—Tall Frank Shields, New York, overhauled Harry O. Hopman, Australia, 6-4, 6-1, 6-2, here today in the opening singles match of the North American zone finals of the Davis Cup tennis competition.

Hopman, much smaller than Shields, and lacking the American star's stroking power made his only stand in the initial set.

In the second match Elsworth Vines, U.S. champion, was leading Jack Crawford, Australia's top ranking star, two sets to nothing when rain halted the match. Vines captured the opening set 6-2, and although Crawford put up a determined stand in the second set, Vines ran out 6-4 to assume a commanding lead.

NEW RELIEF PLAN DEBATED

Vancouver Council Considers Suggested Restaurant Meals For Single Persons

Vancouver, May 27.—Discontinuance of the city's policy granting cents a day to single municipal residents to supplement the forty cents a day relief allowance from the governments is recommended by a special committee of the city council.

Adoption of this proposal, however, is conditional on the council accepting two other committee recommendations, namely, one to introduce a new policy of distribution of the relief allowances, and the second to call tenders from restaurants for supply of meals to single men on the new basis.

BURNARY PROBLEM
Edmonds, B.C., May 27.—Decision by several of the larger retail trading concerns in Burnaby not to accept any more relief orders has created a critical situation. Many families are said to be unable to obtain supplies on their orders. This is due to the refusal of smaller dealers to "take over" customers from larger concerns.

Reeve W. A. Pritchard and members of the council conferred yesterday with Major F. F. Scharschmidt of the provincial government relief staff regarding the situation.

Another matter discussed with Major Scharschmidt was the question of providing work in return for relief orders.

HUNT FOR TWO BOYS FAILS

Children of Homesteader in Northern Alberta Missing For Eleven Days

Canadian Press
Edmonton, May 27.—Search for two boys, eight and six years old, lost for eleven days in muskeg country fifty miles north of Athabasca, was continuing today, but Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers here had no further information.

The lads, sons of Nick Tomasniuk, wandered away from their homestead in the Rock Lake district and an R.C.M.P. officer and trappers have been searching for them, although it is generally believed the children fell victims either to the muskeg swamps or to giant northern bull flies.

R.C.M.P. officers declared here today they expected no further word until the return of their Athabasca men to his detachment, which might be in two days or a week.

Trapping through the bogs and muskeg of the bleak district is perilous work. The few other homesteaders of the Rock Lake district and Indians from Pelican Lake have been searching the swamps, where horses cannot be used because they are too heavy for the soft soil.

GAIN IN FIGHT AGAINST DIABETES

Toronto, May 27.—Announcement was made in a paper presented today by Dr. D. E. Doleman to the joint conventions of the Canadian Health Association and the Ontario Health Officers' Association of discovery of a toxin or toxoid which has greatly benefited diabetes sufferers and is expected to lead within a short time to the definite finding of the cause and cure of the disease.

Dr. Doleman, a Toronto graduate of Oxford University, who has specialized in diabetes research, is confident the cause of diabetes is a microscopic germ called staphylococcus commonly found in boils, carbuncles and abscesses. This germ, he says, prevents proper assimilation by the body of starches and sugars, thereby creating a diabetic condition.

Research leading to the discovery of the toxin, he said, which had already destroyed the germ in many cases, was described by Dr. Doleman.

DANCE RECITAL MOST ARTISTIC

Russian Ballet and Carissima Schools Give Joint Programme With Success

Ensemble and Solo Numbers In Beautifully Staged Performance

Unusually beautiful costumes and settings, and graceful dancing delighted the large audience which witnessed the joint recital given in the Shrine Auditorium yesterday evening by the pupils of the Russian Ballet School and the Carissima School of Spanish dancing. It was a happy inspiration which prompted the holding of the joint recital, the two schools of dancing blending into a programme of artistic appeal and wide variety, and the various participants evoked enthusiastic applause for their finished performance.

SOLOS BY CARISSIMA
Carissima herself appeared in several striking exhibition numbers, gorgeously costumed, her first number being "Fata Dobia" (Fiamenco), a very modern Spanish music hall type. Her other solo numbers were Zambra, in which she impersonated a Granada gypsy siren, and the Triana gypsy dance and a Tango all danced with complete grace and finish, and interpreted with the fire which is characteristic of the dances of the south.

Carissima's pupils were represented in a national dance of Aragon, La Jota, and the Pandanguillo, both given with spirit by Miriam Schwabe and Ian Gibson, a Castilian dance by Wynette Lamers, Frances Amphlett and Helen Hudson, and the beautiful Fiesta Española, with Wynette Lamers, Frances Amphlett, Helen Hudson, Miriam Schwabe and Ian Gibson, as the cast-ensemble players, while Lucy Bryden, Jane McCullum, Mary Martin, E. P. Ashe, Alan King and Jack Child were the guests.

BEAUTIFUL BALLET
The Russian Ballet School was represented in several beautiful ballets, as well as in solo numbers. A number of the children appeared in "The Ballet of the Seasons," the smallest children appearing in the first spring scene, the summer group, a happy band of lovely dancers, about whom the warmth of summer sunbeams seemed to hover, the wild Bacchanalian dance of the autumn maidens, in which Doreen Wilson impersonated Bacchus and a graceful skating dance to characterize winter. The children in the first group were: Maureen Yates, Patsy, Lou Schottel, Pamela Butcher, Winona Rose, Peggy "Bunny" Rowlandson, Florence Hobday, Kathleen Hume, Shirley Noel and Christine Humble. The summer maidens were Diana Kerr, Rosemary Farrow, Ann Ridewood, Josephine Wilson, Betty Boyd, Myra Edwards, Lilian Foster, Mary Wickson and Daphne Sutton.

AUTUMN GROUP
Dancing with the autumn group were Wynne Shaw, Phyllis Addison, Barbara Hulke, Elaine Shephard, Myra Edwards, Wynette Lamers, Wynne Shaw, Muriel Craig, Betty Holmes, Audrey Homer Dixon, Monica Trump, Gladys Corrin, Oustille Boyd, Ruth Adams and Iris Noel. In the winter ballet, were: Diana Kerr, Rosemary Farrow, Ann Ridewood, Josephine Wilson, Betty Boyd, Myra Edwards, Lilian Foster, Mary Wickson and Daphne Sutton.

THE COURT OF NEPTUNE
The Court of Neptune, danced to music specially written by Eustace H. Key, was another outstanding number. E. P. Ashe played the part of Neptune, Wynne Shaw, Undine; Molly Milton, Nausicaa, and Jack Hall, the drowned sailor. The sea maidens were Phyllis Addison, Doreen Wilson, Gwen Noel, Barbara Hulke, Myra Edwards and Elaine Shephard.

FANTASY
Enriched with the exquisite grace of a cameo, was the "Fantasy," in which Doreen Wilson represented the great Italian dancer of the eighteenth century, stepping down from a gold frame to demonstrate her skill with exquisite grace to Phyllis Addison, who represented a dancing mistress, and Pamela Butcher and Winona Rose, her tiny pupils.

It's Better and You can Prove it -
Borden's ST. CHARLES MILK
There is a great difference in evaporated milks. Insist on Borden's St. Charles. It's the best by every test.
There are good reasons why Borden's St. Charles is the best of all evaporated milks. First, every herd that supplies Borden's is rigidly inspected. Every dairy is supervised by Borden's own milk experts.
Second, the milk itself is tested. Colour, flavour, purity, cream content, are all carefully checked. Not one quart gets by unless it meets the exacting Borden standard.
Third, sixty per cent. of the natural water is removed, giving you concentrated milk more than twice as rich as average fluid milk.
Fourth, it is sterilized after being sealed in the cans, safeguarding your health and bringing you the purest milk obtainable.
In coffee or tea, and for better results in cooking—insist upon Borden's St. Charles, and make sure that you get it.
TRY THESE THREE TESTS and prove for yourself that ST. CHARLES is better!
1. Open a can of Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk. Note the creamy color—the smooth consistency—the pure fresh flavor.
2. Heat a cup of coffee with Borden's St. Charles Evaporated Milk to "cream" it. St. Charles blends in smoothly, tastes fresh and rich.
3. Make cream sauce with Borden's St. Charles. The pure, fresh St. Charles flavor gives greater deliciousness.

Toronto, May 27.—Message from China, Australia, Switzerland, Newfoundland, the United States and various parts of Canada were brought by representatives of branches of the Young Women's Christian Association in these countries to the annual Canadian convention of the association, which opened here last night. The principal address was delivered by Dr. Anna V. Rice, national secretary of the Y.W.C.A. in the United States. It was her belief such a statement would bring a revival, spiritual and economic, in the modern world comparable to the revival of the Roman Empire under the stimulus of Christian teachings.

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, May 27.—Mrs. Edith Rogers, only woman member of the Manitoba Legislature, has withdrawn from active politics. She has been a Liberal member for Winnipeg for the last ten years, and is quitting public life on the advice of her medical adviser, who has prescribed a long rest. In the letters to Dr. Murdoch MacKay, leader of the Manitoba Liberal Party, and Premier John Bracken, she expressed regret she could not continue the pleasant association with her colleagues in the Legislature, and extended best wishes to the Liberal-Progressive coalition.

CENTENARIAN'S SON HAS NO JOB

Halifax, May 27.—Conditions must be pretty bad when a willing worker cannot get employment, in the opinion of Mrs. James Young, who is 104 years of age. She has seen depressions before, but there's something different about this one; her seventy-year-old son, E. Young, whom she considers a comparative youngster, has been out of work several months, and there seems to be nothing definite in sight for him. Mrs. Young is not going to let that worry her. She still is active, makes all her own clothes and declares she will add her to the list of unemployed.

NOT ENGAGED TO JACK DEMPSEY

Lena Basquette Vigorously Denies Rumors; Former Wife of Sam Warner

Los Angeles, May 27.—A petite brunette, "very, very cross," as one might readily perceive by the vicious way she shook a newspaper, added a third barrage of words to-day to the rumor that Jack Dempsey had stolen Lena Basquette away from Teddy Hayes. The principals were unanimous in denying that Dempsey, emulating his man conquests of the ring, had stepped out and split asunder the romance between the actress, Miss Basquette, and Hayes, boxing trainer, and claimed her for himself. In San Francisco the former heavyweight boxing champion said he wouldn't think of taking anything away from Teddy and was not prepared to marry a woman who had just been divorced from one, Estelle Taylor. Hayes said he and Lena were only "good friends." But Lena was more vociferous. She swept into Hollywood from Palm Springs like a miniature tornado. "I'm tired and dusty and very, very cross right this minute," she howled, pretty nevertheless, to the reporters. "I have known Jack for seven years and in fact ever since he and Estelle were married about the same time I was married to Sam Warner (the late film producer). We were just good friends and I mean that." The reporters had no doubt of it. "If Jack was seen in San Francisco at a dance and a ball game with a girl who looks like me, it's probably Miss Rosita Gonzales, the South American actress."

Hollywood He-men
Wear Sweaters Now

BY ROBERT GRANDON

CLARK GABLE
claims credit for sweater craze

SCHNOZZLE DURANTE

BUT THELMA TODD—AH!

Perhaps Clark Gable started it. Clark certainly did love to loaf about in a turtle-neck in his early years . . . and still does. For that matter . . . but the sweater has become quite the thing out here these days.

"Gable-hub," Jimmy (Schnozle) Durante said to me, just before he started on his vaudeville tour. "Dat guy he set me sweater minded! Not him! Me—Schnozle your old pal—I up and starts it. Why, I wore a red sweater for twenty years . . . and suspenders over it!"

Which cannot be denied, if you look back to the days when Jimmy and his two boon companions graced the stage or disgraced it, as you will.

Then Joel McCrea had a hand in it, too. He showed up one Sunday night at Marion Davies's house dressed for the football field . . . and the call for sweaters began the next day.

For the greater part, the colors run to blue or black . . . and they're worn with the coat buttoned at that . . . and it doesn't look as bad as you might imagine . . . only terribly soporific.

Jack Oakie has been distanced by the sweater craze. Jack was one of the first to do his social climbing in a sweat shirt . . . But Jack was quite outdone when sweaters came in . . . and he wears one now.

Even the girls have taken it up. Sweaters, flannel trousers, and a beret are quite the thing here. Loretta Young, Dolores Del Rio, Joan Crawford, Arline Judge, Anita Louise, Adrienne Dore, Ruth Hall, Jean Harlowe, Thelma Todd—your first any day . . . all decked out in their sweaters and tams.

And a right neat fad, I call it, especially when they're form fitting.

Would you like to try the Favorite Recipes of Famous Stars? If so, Robert Grandon will send you an illustrated leaflet containing these if you will send 2 cents in stamps, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily's Whistle

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

Uncle Wiggily was skipping and hopping about in the woods. He was twiddling his ears, his pink nose was brightly twinkling, and more than that, the rabbit gentleman was singing. He was not what you would call a wonderful or sweet singer, but he was loud. And Uncle Wiggily sang:

"Oh, I'm so glad that this is spring. And that's why I gladly sing. Oh, dear! I've sat down on a thistle. I guess I'll make a willow whistle."

For, as he was hopping about, glad that the lovely springtime had come, all of a sudden Uncle Wiggily really did sit down on a ship thistle plant, which stung his leg.

"But what do you mean about going to make a willow whistle?" asked a voice as Uncle Wiggily carefully pulled himself up off the thistle weed. The rabbit gentleman looked around and there stood Peetie Bow Wow, the puppy dog boy.

"Oh, hello, Peetie!" exclaimed Mr. Longears. "So you heard what I was singing, did you?"

"Yes, and I saw you fall down, Uncle Wiggily," softly barked the puppy. "I hope you didn't hurt yourself."

"No, thank you, not much," was the answer. "At this time of year, I mean the spring, the thistle's thorns are rather soft and tender. I'm glad I didn't sit on it in the fall, when the spikes are hard and stiff. And, speaking of spring, the willow trees are also soft and tender now, just right for making whistles."

"Are you going to make a willow whistle?" asked Peetie.

"Yes," answered the rabbit gentleman. "I am so happy that I want not only to sing for spring, but also to whistle."

"May I come with you and watch you make the whistle?" asked the puppy dog boy.

"You may. I shall be glad to have you," answered the rabbit. "Hop along with me."

So the two friends went together to the bank of the brook where the willow trees grow, gracefully bending over to drink the sparkling, sunny water. Peetie didn't exactly hop, for that isn't the way puppies go. But he trotted along beside Uncle Wiggily and soon the rabbit gentleman was gnawing off a willow branch to make the whistle.

When the willow stick was the right size, about five inches long, Uncle Wiggily gently pounded the bark to loosen it so it would slip off the stick without cracking. Then the rabbit the Lady Mouse Teacher in the Hollow Stump School. "A few minutes more and you would have been late. Take your seat, and I will see how well you know your lesson."

"All right, Miss Mouse," barked Peetie politely. But all at once he had a strange feeling in his heart. Suddenly Peetie remembered that he had forgotten to study his lesson. If Miss Mouse called on him now he could not answer correctly.

"And," thought poor Peetie, "I shall be kept in after school. I wish I had studied. If I am kept in I can't have any fun blowing Uncle Wiggily's whistle. Oh, dear!"

"Come, Peetie, say for me the five times number-table," said Miss Mouse. "Five times one is five. Five times two—"

That was as far as Peetie could go. Try as he did he couldn't remember that five times two make ten. Then all of a sudden, Peetie took the whistle from his pocket and blew a shrill blast.

"Why did you do that, Peetie?" squeaked the surprised teacher.

"Because there is danger and Uncle Wiggily told me always to blow this whistle in a time of danger," whined the puppy.

"What danger is there?" asked Miss Mouse and Peetie said:

"There is danger that I may be kept in after school for not knowing my lesson. It's a terrible danger! So I blew the whistle."

Then Miss Mouse and all the pupils laughed. But she forgave Peetie and did not keep him in after school. For at recess Peetie studied his lesson, so all was well. And if the bottle of cream will try and grow big like the bottle of milk so I can play tag with the cat-meat, you shall hear next about Uncle Wiggily's rubber gun.

"The Plains of Abraham"

BY JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD

(Copyright by Doubleday Doran Co., Inc.)

Concealing himself behind the bole of a tree, Jeems watched them as they passed, so near that a pebble flung by a hoof of one of the horses fell at his side. His courage almost failed him there for while his hands clenched at the sight of Paul Tache, his heart faltered in its beating as his attention turned from his enemy to Toinette. She had become, all at once, a young lady whom he could easily believe he had never seen before, and the change in her held him for a few moments so forgetful of his own existence that he would have been discovered had one of the three happened to glance in his direction. Toinette was wearing her first riding suit, a gorgeous blue camelot trimmed with silver, just arrived from Quebec. With this she wore a smartly cocked beaver hat under which bore a rakish feather, and from which this hat her long dark hair fell in a cascade of carefully made curls, partly restrained in their freedom by two or three red ribbons enmeshed among them. She was superbly aware of the lovely figure she made, and every inch of her body was at a dignified tension as she rode past, the place where Jeems was hidden.

After she had gone, Jeems felt an overwhelming sense of littleness and unimportance. For Toinette was no longer Toinette, but a real princess, grown up. And Paul Tache, riding close beside her, with hair powdered and tied and with a red velvet coat that could be seen a mile away, seemed now to be infinitely removed from the plottings which he had conceived against him. He stepped from behind the tree and stooped to pick up the pebble which Toinette's horse had flung at him. He could hear the auctioneer's voice, and others bidding for Lusaan's properties. Then came a burst of laughter which rose with unrestrained abandon above all other sound, a blast of merriment which he could have recognized anywhere in the world. Only his Uncle Hespibah could laugh like that. The sights and excitements of the scene about him would have made for him one of the most thrilling events of his forest world, had his heart not been choked with the emotions of impending drama. Yet he did not press his desires by undue haste, and it was half an hour before he found himself close to the one who occupied his thoughts. This happened in such a fortunate way that Toinette, concealed by the ample forms of Lusaan's wife and daughter, was within a foot of his shoulder before he knew it. She did not see him, and he stood with wildly beating heart, breathing the faint perfume from her person, his senses dazed by the nearness of her splendor and his world of vision filled only with a great broad-brimmed hat, an enchanting mass of lustrous curls, a sunset of crimson-ribbons, a pair of slim shoulders—and then, his paradise broken by the ugliness of reality, he discovered Paul Tache. The young man was returning from a journey to the barrels, and when he saw Jeems, a contemptuous smile twisted his lips.

It was this look which turned Toinette so that she found Jeems standing in the English colonies, and he brought me this that I might in turn give it to you. Will you accept it, Toinette?"

He forgot Paul Tache. Spots of red came into his cheeks as Toinette's surprised eyes greeted him. She almost smiled, and as if something made her forgetful of her magnificence, and the dignity imposed, she extended her hand to receive the package. The manner in which she accepted his gift sent the blood racing through his body. The color deepened in her cheeks, and, mistaking this for still greater evidence of the pleasurable thrill he had given her, Jeems was sure she was about to thank him for his gift, when Paul stood beside them. Ignoring Jeems, Toinette's cousin led her away, politely relieving her of the package as they went. It was then Toinette turned to smile at Jeems, in spite of the eyes she knew were watching her. In this same moment her escort allowed the package to drop surreptitiously from his hand.

This act, inspired by a contempt for the forest boy, and urged by a meanness of spirit hidden under a display of wealth and fine clothes, swept Jeems's thought from Toinette, whose nearness of person, surprising beauty, and sweetness of disposition had almost made him forget his one reason for being at Lusaan's sale. This weakness in the armor of his intentions was sealed when he saw his present fall to the ground. Toinette became instantly immaterial in the path of a storm of emotion which caught and held him, and he saw only one person where there were two, and that one was Paul Tache. In a brain white with heat, and in eyes blinded to the presence of all living forms except that of the youth who had darkened his mind with bitterness, Toinette ceased to exist for him, and when he sprang forward to recover his bundle, it was not with the thought that he was rescuing it for her, but that it was to be his reason for glorious war when the moment was at hand for him to hurl it in his rival's face.

Detaching themselves from the shifting groups of which they had been a part, Toinette and young Tache strolled to their horses, knowing that many glances followed their elegant departure. Giving themselves a brief time in which to be admired, they sauntered into the gardens back of Lusaan's house.

Jeems was only a few steps from Paul and Toinette when they disappeared behind the house. He held back with a feeling of satisfaction when he saw the two going down a path which took them out of sight of any curious eyes that might have watched them. Not until the last flutter of Toinette's skirt was gone did he proceed with the business of following them, and then, like an Indian, he slipped noiselessly along the path and found them standing somewhat perplexed at the edge of a soggy and ill-smelling open space where Lusaan had built his barn and wherein his cattle and pigs had gathered so long that one was sure of a precarious and unpleasant footing. Toinette, her chin tilted, a flash of indignation in her eyes as she held up her skirt, with both hands, was on the point of loosing her wrath upon her escort for daring to bring her to such a place of defilement when Jeems stepped out from a rim of bushes and confronted them.

His face was pale, his slim body was as taut as a bowstring. His eyes were almost black. He did not see Toinette, scarcely knew that she was in his world, even as her anger gave place to an exclamation of surprise when she saw in his hand the package which he had given her a few minutes before. He approached Paul Tache, and that youth, misinterpreting the closeness of his movement, and the bloodless pallor of his face as signs of embarrassment and fear, sought to cover his disgrace in Toinette's eyes by an explosion of haughty protest at being followed and spied upon in this way. Jeems made no reply except to hold out the package. Sight of it choked the words in the other's throat. Jeems's silence and the way in which he continued to extend the package brought a deep color into Paul's face. He and not Jeems was conscious of the amazement in Toinette's countenance and of the intensity of her interest in the situation. He recovered himself swiftly and, with a guileful change of manner, held out his hand.

"Pardon me," he apologized. "It is good of you to bring the package—which I accidentally dropped."

Jeems came a step nearer. "You lie!" he cried, and with a furious movement he hurled the bundle at Tache's face.

The force of the blow sent Paul reeling backward, and Jeems was at him with the quickness and pass one suddenly transformed by magic. He had never fought with another. But he knew how animals clawed, dismembered. In a hundred ways had viewed strife and death and wilderness knew these things. All that he had witnessed, all the knew of torture and violence, all the desire to maim and kill gave his action a character of such liveliness that it drew a howl of passion from Toinette, and a shrill little cry from Tache.

Driver Fined For Crash on East Saanich Road in Which Two Were Hurt

Charged as the result of an accident on the East Saanich Road in which two motorcyclists were seriously injured, Kenneth Thompson was found guilty in the Saanich Police Court yesterday afternoon of driving to the common danger and was fined $25. H. A. Maclean, K.C., gave notice of his intention to appeal the decision of Magistrate George Jay.

The accident occurred April 29, James Thompson and John Watson of James Island being injured in a collision between Kenneth Thompson's car and the motorcycle on which the pair were riding. The two men have not yet fully recovered from their injuries, one coming into court on a wheel bed and the other with the aid of crutches.

Their evidence was that the defendant's car swerved across the road to the same side as their machine, causing the collision. Thomas Oxley, an eye-witness, said he saw the accused's car swerve sharply out from behind a truck and the impact occurred on the gravelled portion of the road side.

MAY ADVOCATE VICTORIA PLAN

Mayor Taylor of Vancouver Interested in New Form of Police Board

Mayor L. D. Taylor of Vancouver, here yesterday, hinted that he may urge the Terminal City to follow Victoria's lead in changing its form of police commission to that adopted by the capital.

"I have been watching with interest the operation of the new form of commission in Victoria and it is likely I will strongly urge upon the council that a charter amendment be requested from the next session of the Legislature to permit of such a commission being set up in Vancouver," he said.

Mayor Taylor said there appeared to be a need for some change in Vancouver's police administration in view of the crime situation to re-establish public confidence in the police.

TELLS TRIALS OF LOYALISTS

Rotarians Hear of Hardships Faced By U.E.L. Groups in Canada

Mme. de Turczynowicz Urges Class Consciousness Among Descendants

The trials and hardships undergone by the United Empire Loyalists in their settlement of Upper Canada, brought about by their unwillingness to remain under the flag of the American Colonies, following the revolution in 1776, were sketched by Madame L. de Turczynowicz in an address before the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

"I believe that if there is one class of people to-day who should develop a class consciousness, it is the United Empire Loyalists. Madame de Turczynowicz said. "Their memory should be cherished and their sacrifice honored." She spoke of the stand taken by the Loyalists during the revolution of 1776. In 1784 they left the country which had broken away from the British crown and proceeded to the Maritime Provinces. Others went to Upper Canada through the wilderness. She referred to the hardships of the early settlers.

There was no just cause for the revolution on the part of the American colonies, the speaker said. Grievances were exaggerated and some were non-existent, she added.

Madame de Turczynowicz dealt with the persecution of the loyalists in the colonies and the resulting exodus of what she termed the "best elements" from New York and other cities to Canada.

The speaker touched upon the records of United Empire Loyalists in Canada.

In what later became Upper Canada, the Loyalists commenced agitation for the more favorable laws than those of the existing Quebec Act. Settling before the surveyors had covered the country, many made their homes, at great difficulty, on land which later they found to belong to other people.

The hard years which followed the cessation of food grants by the government were sketched by the speaker who told of the difficulties they faced. Scarcity of pasture lands prevented, for many years, the introduction of domesticated animals among the settlements in Upper Canada.

The development of schools in the log cabins was outlined.

The government's grant of land to the United Empire Loyalists was an effort on the part of the government to compensate the Loyalists for their courageous and devoted sacrifice, the speaker continued.

She herself, a proud descendant of a United Empire Loyalist, had returned to Canada through her pride in the country.

Ninety of every 100 people in Albania are now engaged in agriculture.

Canada's Olympic Chances Appear Better Than in 1928

With Williams in Form Dominion Will Have Fine Track Team

Tufinuf and Knockabout Return $3,132.24 in Daily Double

Australian "Boy Wonder" Tennis Player Going to Wimbledon

TWO MONTHS before the opening of the Olympic Games at Los Angeles, Canadian observers of track and field events are studying with no sign of worry, the record breaking performances of the French, Japanese, Finns and United States athletes. The impressive list of new records compiled recently by prospective Olympic competitors contains the name of not one Canadian, nor for that matter, of one Briton.

As the United States and France contributed most of the pre-game thrills in 1928, however, and Canada and Great Britain shared the greater share of actual Olympic glory at Amsterdam, the cold-eyed observers do not discount Canada's chances in the forthcoming Olympiad. The Dominion is estimated to have a much better chance to win points than four years ago. At this time in 1928 Percy Williams was unknown in the sport world. To-day, holder of the Olympic 100 and 200 metre championships, he is a famous speed king with an uncertain fgg. For more than a year the Vancouver flyer has been grounded; others have taken his place at the top of the world ranking of the fleet.

Williams will be in form for the coming Olympics, according to his closest friends, and if he is Canada's Olympic stock will shoot up several points. Williams will go to Los Angeles at the head of a better sprint section than Canada sent to Amsterdam.

Bert Pearson, an eighteen-year-old schoolboy with a sensational burst of speed, stands about where Williams did in May, 1928. Pearson was caught more than once in his eighteenth year in 9.4-5 seconds. If he develops quickly enough, his place on the Olympic squad is certain. With Williams and Jimmy Hall, the Winnipeg quarter-miler, both striving to regain lost form, the Dominion's greatest hope in the California games lies with underdog Alex. Wilson, Montreal's Notre Dame University. Wilson, just as good at the quarter as he is at the half, leans toward the longer distance.

Young Fred Shaver, Ontario farm boy, who has turned in some brilliant half-mile times, may catch a place with the Olympic team, and Phil Edwards, now attending McGill, will be difficult to sidetrack. Whatever team of marmalade runners the maple leaf will rank high with the best in the games. Harold Webster, Hamilton veteran, and Johnny Miles, have already been selected. If Gordon Smallcombe, Toronto, is sent to the games he will give Canada a chance to win points in the field division. Otherwise the Dominion can hope for little. Smallcombe ranks high among the hop, step and jumpers.

Jerry Halliday, sixty, retired salesman, figured he was tough enough to stand a little more "knocking about" at the track. And then he looked at the line-up for the daily double. Tufinuf and Knockabout stood out on the programme! A hunch!

He invested $2. Tufinuf stood off a stretch challenge from Tawenels and won by a nose. Knockabout had a harder time with Diodora and Irfanah, but came through. And then Jerry Halliday pinched himself. But it was true. He held the winning ticket, the only one of its kind.

And in a few more minutes he held a check for $3,132.24, the world record "double" price, and a season pass to Aurora track, donated by General Manager E. F. Carruthers.

"No, I don't intend to quit playing 'em now," he said.

The "boy wonder" of Australian lawn tennis—Vivian Flear—has made all reports to the contrary, is to play at Wimbledon this year.

McGrath is only fifteen, but is so good that many in Australia thought he should have been attached to the Australian Davis Cup team for practice and should also take part in matches against countries other than those Australia will meet in Davis Cup-ties.

Owing to his age, however, the Australian Lawn Tennis Association rejected him, but the New South Wales L.T.A., the state in which McGrath was born, is sending him to Wimbledon and for a tour of English tournaments to gain experience.

McGrath first attracted attention when only fourteen owing to his two-handed shot on the backhand.

He plays with his right hand in serving, smashing and forehand shots, but uses both hands when playing on the backhand, thus reinforcing the power of his stride.

Saunton, Eng., May 27.—Maureen Orcutt, long-driving golfer from Englewood, N.J., to-day shot a 73 in the first qualifying round of the British women's golf championship to lead the field with more than half the cards in. Light inshore winds made for good scoring conditions to-day.

Musgrave Will Occupy Mound For Tillicums; Play Postponed Game To-morrow

Tillicums will make their debut in the Victoria-Senior Amateur Baseball League to-night when they oppose the Sons of Canada at the Royal Athletic Park, starting at 6.15 o'clock, with Allie McGregor in charge.

The Tillicums have lined up a team of youngsters, and Manager Harry Downs is looking forward to his "kids" upsetting the dope in the senior circuit. The Tillicums have been working out nearly every night and are in fine shape for their first game. Musgrave is expected to take the mound for them to-night, with Steve completing the battery.

The clubmen will have Moore on first base, with Smith at second and Taylor at short. Third base will be handled by Fleming. For the outfield the Tillicums have "Muzz" Patrick, McLaren and Pollard. Proudlove and McEwen are other pitchers with the club, while Robertson, Buckas, Dangerfield and Featherstone will be ready for action in the infield or outfield.

Noble, Parfitt or Cann will work on the mound for the Sons. In their opening game the Canucks suffered a setback at the hands of the Elks. The game will start at 3 o'clock.

BALTIMORE TAKES LEAD

Hand Newark Fourth Straight Defeat to Gain Top Berth in International Ball

Their fourth successive defeat had dropped Al Mamaux's Newark Bears from first to fourth place in the International League to-day, striking proof of the closest early season game the circuit has enjoyed in many years.

Baltimore Orioles, responsible for all four Newark defeats in the last few days, had taken over the pace-setting duties, a half game in front of Buffalo Bisons and Montreal Royals, who were in a virtual tie for second place. Newark, a half game behind these two latter clubs, was only a game out of the lead.

Home runs by Heinie Sand and Don Hoffman and a run-scoring double by Frank Packard caused Newark's defeat yesterday, 4 to 3. Buffalo continued its mopping-up process at the expense of Rochester Red Wings, 5 to 1.

Jersey City made it three out of four from Reading Keys, 7 to 4. Ike Boone led the Skeeter attack with a home run and triple.

Montreal and Toronto were not scheduled.

Chris. McArdle In Draw With Gaston

Seattle, May 27.—Chris McArdle, Vancouver, B.C., featherweight and Jackie Gaston, Seattle, battled to a fast six-round draw in the main event of the White Center Athletic Club bouts yesterday evening.

McArdle piled up an early lead, but Gaston put on a strong finish to take the final round by a wide margin, winning a draw decision.

U.S. PLAYERS FALTER

Two prominent members of the U.S. contingent probably suffered elimination following to-day's play.

Mrs. O. S. Hill and Virginia Holdreder played poorly. The former failed to show that form displayed in the international matches and posted a shaky 88 for the first round. Miss Holdreder did not represent the United States in the international series. Her score was 102.

Close behind her was Mme. Rene Lacoste, wife of the famous tennis player, with a neat 75. As Miss Simone Thion de la Chaume, Mme. Lacoste won the title in 1927.

The British internationalist, Mrs. J. Watson, and Virginia Van Wie both had 77's.

Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, former United States champion, posted an 80 for her first round. Molly Gourlay, a favored English player, had an 83 and Elsie Corlett an 84.

The first day of the championship was devoted to the first eighteen holes of the thirty-six-hole qualifying round. Miss Orcutt went out in 38 and returned in 35 to finish her round only two over par.

Walker's Victory Is Boomed By Fans

Former Middleweight Champion in Unpopular Win Over Veteran Paulino

Blow After Bell in Eighth Cuts Paulino's Eye and Turns Crowd to Spaniard

New York, May 27.—If Mickey Walker fails to get that match with Ernie Schaaf as early in the outdoor season as he expected, he can blame it all on Paulino Lucardian, rock-ribbed old warrior from the Pyrenees.

By the slimmest of margins and, partly at least, because of an illegal punch at the end of the fifth round, Walker squeezed out a ten-round decision over Paulino in Madison Square Garden yesterday evening. But the boos of a crowd of 8,000 followed Walker as he left the ring while Paulino drew the ovation usually reserved for the winner.

The punch that turned the sympathies of the crowd to the veteran Spaniard and the tide of battle toward Walker, came after the bell had ended the eighth round. Paulino was partly at fault for he landed a left hook to the body just after the bell. But he dropped his hands and stepped back and, as he did, Walker swung a right that split the Spaniard's left eyebrow wide open.

That blow beat Paulino, for Walker opened the cut with the first punch in the ninth round and, blinded by the flow of blood, Paulino could do little from then on but step forward into Walker's lefts to the head.

Walker, if he had won decisively, was to have been matched immediately with Schaaf, but now he probably will have to give Paulino a return match before getting a shot at the blonde Boston giant. Paulino, at 197, outweighed Walker by twenty-seven pounds.

Several of the prominent bowlers of the city have signified their intention of taking part. The play will start at 1.30 o'clock and the club tea room will be open to visitors during the afternoon.

No competitor in this event can be defeated until the conclusion of the twenty-eighth hole. The ultimate prize winners will play forty-two holes. Mainland visitors are expected to be present.

The feature lawn bowling event next week will be the King's birthday bowl at the Burnside Greens, on June 3.

This is an open contest limited to sixteen pairs and entries are required to be in the hands of the secretary the early part of the week.

The pair are scheduled to go over the eight ten-minute round semi-windup, "Rocky" Brooks, Victoria, will meet Alex McDonald, Seattle. The first bout will start at 8.45 o'clock.

Anderson and Ryan met here on Tuesday night in the main event of the outdoor card staged at the Royal Athletic Park, and Anderson won after a thrilling match. So much interest was displayed in this bout that promoter Fred Richardson decided to match them for to-morrow night. In the bout Tuesday, Anderson was extended to the limit to win after taking the first fall. Ryan came back to win the second and appeared to have balanced with Anderson up the air for a body slam and lost the fall.

Brooks and McDonald are expected to put on a good bout. On Tuesday night "Rocky" showed well to gain a third clinch, when he overbalanced with Anderson up the air for a body slam and lost the fall.

That blow beat Paulino, for Walker opened the cut with the first punch in the ninth round and, blinded by the flow of blood, Paulino could do little from then on but step forward into Walker's lefts to the head.

Walker, if he had won decisively, was to have been matched immediately with Schaaf, but now he probably will have to give Paulino a return match before getting a shot at the blonde Boston giant. Paulino, at 197, outweighed Walker by twenty-seven pounds.

Several of the prominent bowlers of the city have signified their intention of taking part. The play will start at 1.30 o'clock and the club tea room will be open to visitors during the afternoon.

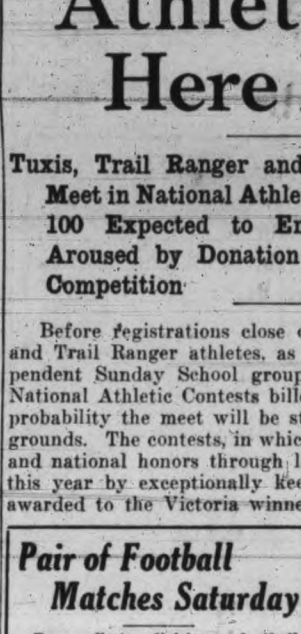

No competitor in this event can be defeated until the conclusion of the twenty-eighth hole. The ultimate prize winners will play forty-two holes. Mainland visitors are expected to be present.

The feature lawn bowling event next week will be the King's birthday bowl at the Burnside Greens, on June 3.

This is an open contest limited to sixteen pairs and entries are required to be in the hands of the secretary the early part of the week.

Pair of Football Matches Saturday

Two first division football matches will be played to-morrow afternoon at the Heywood Avenue grounds. Starting at 2.15 o'clock, Esquimalt will clash with the Victoria West eleven. This game will be followed by one between the Jokers and Saanich Thistles. A victory over the Wests will give the Dockers the honors in the second half of the league, and also the championship as they win the initial half.

Blow After Bell in Eighth Cuts Paulino's Eye and Turns Crowd to Spaniard

New York, May 27.—If Mickey Walker fails to get that match with Ernie Schaaf as early in the outdoor season as he expected, he can blame it all on Paulino Lucardian, rock-ribbed old warrior from the Pyrenees.

By the slimmest of margins and, partly at least, because of an illegal punch at the end of the fifth round, Walker squeezed out a ten-round decision over Paulino in Madison Square Garden yesterday evening. But the boos of a crowd of 8,000 followed Walker as he left the ring while Paulino drew the ovation usually reserved for the winner.

The punch that turned the sympathies of the crowd to the veteran Spaniard and the tide of battle toward Walker, came after the bell had ended the eighth round. Paulino was partly at fault for he landed a left hook to the body just after the bell. But he dropped his hands and stepped back and, as he did, Walker swung a right that split the Spaniard's left eyebrow wide open.

That blow beat Paulino, for Walker opened the cut with the first punch in the ninth round and, blinded by the flow of blood, Paulino could do little from then on but step forward into Walker's lefts to the head.

Winnipeg Grain Market Is Given Fractional Lift

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, May 27.—New-found strength in the securities market gave a fractional lift to grain prices here to-day. Favorable export news from the continent was an added factor. Values at the close were 1/4 higher to unchanged.

May closed 1/4 higher at 63 1/2; July, unchanged at 64; and October, unchanged at 1/4 higher at 65 1/2 to 66 1/2. At the top levels the market was 1/4

1/4 higher, but a burst of selling near the close shaded the high figures. During the first hour there was a fair amount of buying for export. It was an aggravating market with practically all conditions pointing to a good but not a brilliant future. Advantage was taken of the situation.

A fair export trade was working in cash wheat. Spreads were fractionally better than the previous close. Coarse grains were inactive with values fractionally higher for the day.

To-day's Grain Markets

WINNIPEG
(By Logan & Bryan)
Winnipeg, May 27.—Wheat was rather featureless to-day with only a small trade passing. At the start there was a little buying for seaboard account, and some small orders drifted in during the morning. Prices were higher most of the day, more especially during the first half, when prices advanced about 1/4 a cent over the previous close, but locals who had bought early were unloading later, and all the earlier upturn was lost.

The Chicago market was drab, although at mid-session that market advanced to 1/4 over the previous close, only to sell off again. Seaboard advices stated that export sales were small and disappointing, confined to little business in Manitoba, but locally sales estimated 500,000 bushels.

In cash market there was not much going on, but there was a fair demand. Wheat basis July was especially for No. 2 northern. Spreads were unchanged to 1/4 off. Unfavorable reports continue to come in from southwest, the crop showing very little recovery from recent rains, and the Russian fly pest appears to be doing considerable damage.

Winnipeg closed 1/4 up to unchanged. Coarse grains were extremely quiet to-day with nothing of feature. An odd speculative buying order drifted in, but there was no real business, and exports were nil. Pressure was very light, oats closed 1/4 to 1/2 lower, barley 1/4 to 1/2 lower, flax 1/4 higher.

Liverpool due 1/4 to 1/2 lower on Winnipeg.

CHICAGO
(By Logan & Bryan)
Chicago, May 27.—Wheat: The market had a generally firm opening early to-day but met pressure in the late dealings, although the general run of crop news was bullish as ever. The drab tendency in the stock market checked buying to some extent and outside support was still slow except on the dips.

The heavy tendency in the stock market checked buying to some extent and outside support was still slow except on the dips.

Exports from Canadian wheat was quite good with sales of around 1,000,000 bushels. Winnipeg showed a firmer tendency. Liverpool was also firm. Closing 1/4 to 1/2 higher and reporting good demand from France as well as from United Kingdom mills.

Argentine shipments were light at 2,041,000, Australian shipments 3,189,000, a large portion of this going to the Orient. World shipments will be comparatively light.

Hessian fly damage from appearance will be more costly to the winter wheat crop than for many years, the pest being unusually widespread and destructive. Since the recent rains there has been no disposition to change or increase wheat estimates to any extent. The west and southwest and most of Canada was dry, while there were rains in our northwest and middle states.

Domestic wheat and flour clearances during April were 11,866,000 bushels vs. 7,801,000 year ago. Total wheat exports were about 106,000,000 vs. 94,000,000 year ago, up to May 1. Reports from the southwest indicated that the rains had done little more than to check deterioration. With the spring wheat hazards still ahead we favor the buying side on recessions.

Corn was irregular firming up a being received from various sections, but on the whole, the outlook is regarded as favorable. Shipping trade is quiet. Primary arrivals 202,000 vs. 305,000 year ago.

The Belittling
Wife

OppressionMr.
And Mrs.—

Of All Scourges, None Is So Mean as the Belittling Wife; and None Is So Unintelligent, for She Fails To Realize That in Running Down Her Husband She Is Killing the Goose That Lays the Golden Egg

OF ALL the mean, miserable wives who should have something with boiling oil in it done to them, the very worst is the belittling wife. Among my acquaintances is one of these human gaffles. She is married to a fine, upright man who works hard to support her and his children, and who is much admired and respected by all who know him. Except his wife. She evidently considers him the lowest of his sex and her favorite indoor and outdoor sport is humiliating him and attempting to lower his prestige in the eyes of all who know him.

From the day of their marriage the poor man has never been permitted to make a statement without its being challenged. If he says that he went downtown at 8 o'clock in the morning, the wife remarks that he is never accurate about anything, and that it was the 7.49. If he says that it looks as if it was going to be a bright, sunny day, she says that if he ever read anything in the papers except the comic strip, he would know that the weatherman prophesied rain. If they take people out to dinner at a restaurant and the husband attempts to order the meal, she objects to everything he suggests and says that he has never been able to get over his country rearing and still thinks that corned beef and cabbage is a Lucullan feast.

She interrupts his conversation with strangers to correct his grammar and calls attention to the way he holds his fork. She publicly bemoans his lack of style and his taste in dress and she apologizes for her house and her car, saying that, of course, they have to live simply, that John is just a plodder and he hasn't the talent for money-making that Mr. So-and-So has.

This particular woman, for this is a true story, is perhaps an exaggerated type of the belittling wife, but there are plenty others only a little less virulent who seem to derive some queer, morbid pleasure out of disparaging their husbands and representing them as fools and knaves to others.

It is hard to understand why women do this. Perhaps they have a distorted vanity that makes them want to glorify themselves at their husbands' expense, and they think that they show how superior they are to the men they have married when they correct them. Perhaps they get a sadistic enjoyment out of torturing their husbands with their fault-finding, and derive a kick from watching their husbands writhe with mortification as they are held up for ridicule.

One doesn't understand why a woman wants to make her husband look cheap and inferior any more than one understands why a man endures having his wife put him in that position while there are divorce courts and good hickory sticks lying around handy.

But belittling wives still survive, unbeaten and undivided, and husbands go on suffering martyrdom at their hands. And then one wonders how any woman can have little enough intelligence not to perceive that when she destroys her husband's credit and makes people think poorly of him that she is ruining herself as well as him. She is literally killing the goose that lays the golden egg.

In the first place we cannot help feeling a certain contempt for a man who puts up with such treatment from his wife. We feel that he should stop her taunting tongue even if he has to choke her to do it. In reality, the husband may be guided by the noblest motives; by pity for a woman who is a poor neurotic and by his determination to keep the home together for his children, no matter at what sacrifice to himself, but the general reaction of the public is that a man should demand that his wife treat him with outward respect, and that he is more or less of a weakling if he fails to receive it.

In the second place the belittling wife forgets that every wife writes her husband's price-tag and that the world takes him pretty much at her valuation. If she thinks he is an oracle and begins every sentence with "John says," as if that settled the matter, if she is always boasting about how much he studies and how hard he works and how faithful he is and how ambitious and how determined to succeed, we begin quoting his opinion, too, and looking upon him as a coming lawyer or doctor or business man, and we take our law cases to him, or send for him when we get sick, and we take him on when we are looking for a competent, up-and-coming young man.

But if a wife is always correcting her husband and making him seem like an ignoramus to us; if she shows us that she doesn't think he has enough judgment even to drive a car without her always telling him to watch out, for the man who is about to cross the street, or not to drive too fast or too slow; if she is always bemoaning what little enterprise he has and what poor judgment, why, we set him down as a failure and pass him by when we have plums to hand out.

And, in the third place, the belittling wife does her husband the greatest injury that one human being can do another. She kills his faith in himself. She paralyzes his energies. She slays his ambition. She puts out the fire on his altar.

The stiffest spine melts down under a continuous douche of cold water. The highest hopes fade and wither under a blighting strocco of perpetual criticism.

It is a ghastly thing what a wife can do to a man when she shows him that she has no belief in him, no admiration for him. It takes the strength out of his arms, the pep out of his ambitions, the very soul out of his body and makes life cinders, ashes and dust that isn't worth striving for.

Behind many a man's failure is a belittling wife.

Little Trips Into Nature

IV.—GROUND WATER

We speak of "the good, solid earth," but under our feet there is running water. Rain and melting snow send water into the soil. Grass, bushes, trees and other growing things use part of the water; but the rest goes as far down as it can.

Natural Bridge of Virginia—find the man!

Water below the surface is known as "ground water." It trickles through cracks in the rock layers. Sometimes it cuts a good-sized tunnel and forms an underground river.

In marshy places the level of ground water may be just about at the surface. If you have tried to keep your feet dry while walking across a marsh, you must know about ground water in such places!

In geysers districts of Yellowstone Park, Iceland and New Zealand, ground water runs against hot rocks.

As a result, we have boiling springs and steam pressure which throws jets of hot water into the air.

There are places where the level of ground water is low, and wells must be drilled hundreds of feet into the ground. The principal of a boarding school in Ohio told me of drilling three or four hundred feet deep without finding good drinking water; but the school had luck of another kind. Gas came out of the hole which was drilled, natural gas. This gas supplies more than enough fuel for all of the school's heating and cooking.

Drill deep enough and you are just about sure to find something of value—gas, oil or good drinking water. In most cases, people do not drill a well to a depth of more than 150 feet or 200 feet.

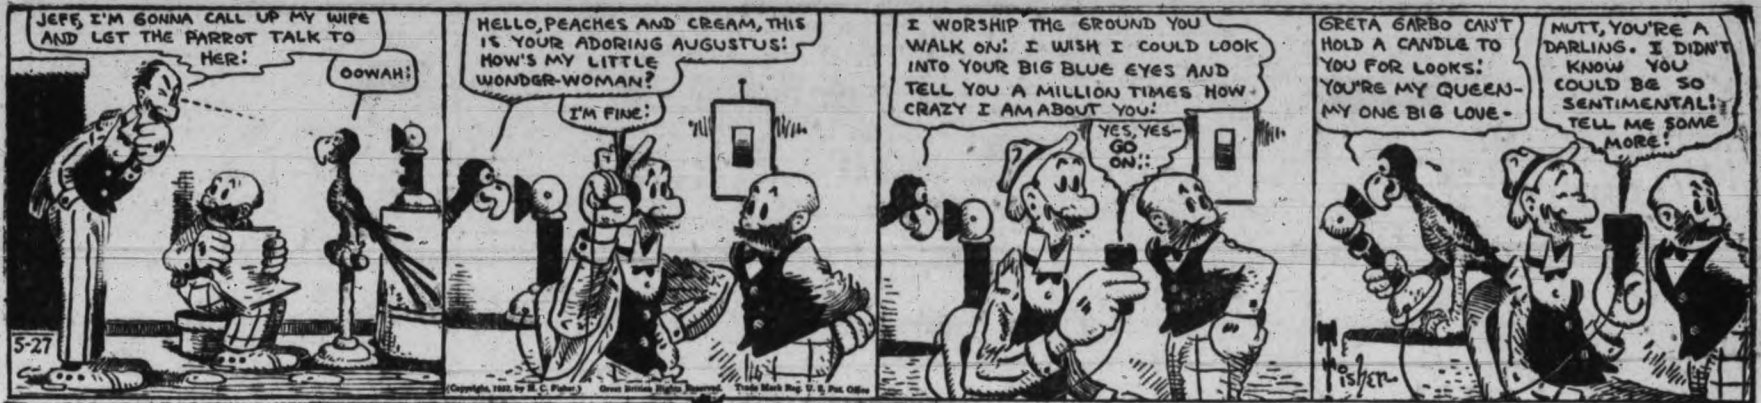

What is a spring? It is bubbling ground water. Rain and snow gave water to the ground; and the water finds an open place where it can come forth. Every spring has higher ground around it. You will never find a spring at the highest point of a mountain peak.

When ground water "caves away" rock, it forms large hollows. Sometimes the result is a cave. When both ends of an underground hollow are removed, we may have a natural bridge.

Natural Bridge, Virginia, is one of the most famous. It is 215 feet high and has a span of ninety feet. This bridge was carved out by underground water, and the same is true of the still larger Rainbow Natural Bridge of Utah.

SATURDAY, MAY 28

According to astrology this is not an important day in planetary direction. The early morning hours are best for any sort of enterprise.

This should be a fortunate day for signing leases and contracts. It is auspicious for the President of the United States, who may write his name on important state papers.

Under this sway the mind should be open to new ideas and suggestions, but slow to accept them.

Young folk should be fairly lucky under this rule of the planets, which encourages study and serious thought.

Unrest and discontent among workers in many lines of activity may be expected as the spring advances, it is foretold.

Wage problems may cause much discussion and even serious troubles in certain states where peculiar problems will exist, the stars foretell.

Venus stationary in Cancer is supposed to improve the condition of all the people.

I.O.D.E. HELPING NEW CANADIANS

Toronto, May 26.—Work among new Canadians was outlined in the report of the Immigration Committee, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, presented to the annual convention of that body here to-day.

Naturalization cards were now being distributed, the report said, and many new Canadians displayed them proudly.

"Another feature which was new to the immigration department was the sending of reading matter regularly to settlers." One chapter of the order in San Juan had sent more than 1,000 pounds of magazines to settlers, while Alberta reported sending 8,000 magazines and 500 books to settlers and newcomers to the country.

Immigration had dropped off considerably, the committee stated. In Quebec, the port of entry for seven months of the year, there were 7,937 arrivals during the year as compared with 38,110 the previous season.

LIFE VARIED BY SUNSPOTS

Scientists Find Crops More Prolific in Years When Spots Few

All Forms of Life Profoundly Affected By Cycle of Changes

That profound fluctuations in living conditions and life accompany fluctuations in sun spots is indicated by the study of these celestial phenomena carried on by the Dominion Observatory of the Department of the Interior at Ottawa.

Individual sun spots vary greatly in size. Some are as small as the earth, while others are five and six times as large. When it is recalled that the sun is 836,000 miles in diameter, over 100 times the diameter of the earth, a spot the size of the earth appears as a trivial defect on the solar disc.

Since 1750 the European records of sun spots are so complete that to each month has been assigned a relative sunspot number, giving due regard to numbers and sizes of spots and groups of spots. From the monthly numbers a yearly average results. These yearly numbers increase from a minimum up to a maximum and down to a minimum in from about nine to fourteen years, with an average duration of a cycle of a little over eleven years. The extent of the maximum also varies from cycle to cycle. The cause of the cycle in sun spots is not definitely known as yet. In recent years the minimum of sun spots occurred in 1901, 1913, and 1923, with maxima in 1906, 1917, and 1928.

This fluctuation in the sunspot numbers is ordinarily spoken of as the eleven-year sunspot cycle. It is accompanied by fluctuations on the earth in sunlight received, electromagnetic conditions, chemical compounds in the atmosphere, temperature, precipitation, cloudiness, and atmospheric transparency. These fluctuations in the physical elements which control living conditions are great enough in some regions to affect profoundly all forms of life, micro-organisms, insects, birds, animals, plants and even fish, and in consequence, economic conditions.

LIFE AND SUNSPOTS
Records kept in Manitoba since 1893, when examined in the light of the sunspot cycle, show the relationship between the rise and fall in the number of sun spots and the maximum and minimum of grasshoppers, ruffed and sharp-tailed grouse, and rabbits. Records from other sources show similar effects for fish and fur-bearing animals.

The annual growth-rings of trees which grow in northern Europe, in western United States, and in many regions in Canada all record the influence of the sunspot cycle in the past, in some cases even farther back than the records of sun spots extend. The eleven-year cycle has been found in trees recently released by the retreating glacier in northern British Columbia, trees which grew perhaps many thousands of years ago.

Farm crops in Canada, the grains, hay and potatoes, show on the average greater yields at the sunspot minimum than at the maximum, in accord with the higher temperatures and greater precipitation occurring on the average at sunspot minimum. Cotton yield in the United States also exhibits the influence of the sunspot cycle. These fluctuations and those in other forms of life exert a great influence on economic conditions, and it is consequently not surprising to find the eleven-year cycle reflected in commodity prices, though, at times, the doings of man obscure the issue.

APPROVAL WON BY DELEGATION

A. G. Lambbrick and ex-Councillor G. A. Vantreight yesterday evening headed a Gordon Head delegation which successfully appealed to the Saanich Council in support of a permit to erect a new hall, adjoining the existing Gordon Head Hall, on Tyndall Avenue. The building inspector had refused a permit, because the new hall was to be placed twenty feet from the street line, to align with the existing building. The building by-law specified a set-back of twenty-five feet.

Mr. Lambbrick said the building would be set-back another five feet if required, but the change would spoil the appearance of the group. Mr. Vantreight said he had no objection to the plans as prepared, although the site fronted his property. Mr. Lambbrick stated that a public meeting had been held and no objections had been voiced. A great demand for a large hall had developed since inception of badminton and basketball contests in the districts. The council later ordered the permit to be issued, provided minor changes were made in the plan.
